TeleCommunication Systems Named Awardee on $48 Million Command, Control, Communications and Computer Support Contract

Multi-Year Program Enables Department of Defense Agencies to Purchase TCS C4 Support Services

Note: Comtech Acquired TCS on 2/23/2016

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 11, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- TeleCommunication Systems, Inc. (TCS) (NASDAQ: TSYS), a world leader in highly reliable and secure mobile communication technology, today announced it has been selected as one of six awardees under a Command, Control, Communications and Computer (C4) Support contract. The multiple-awardee, Indefinite Delivery – Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) vehicle has an estimated ceiling of $48 million over three years, with a maximum award to each awardee of $8 million, unless amended higher by the contracting officer.

News Facts:

- | This contract enables Department of Defense agencies to purchase TCS' family of C4 support services, including systems analysis support, systems integration support and operational systems support.
- | Individual task orders will be awarded through the Department of the Army, Program Executive Office, Enterprise Information Systems (PEO EIS).
- | This contract replaces the Integration, Production, Training and Lifecycle Sustainment Support on C4 Communications System for Tactical & Wideband/Vehicular/Shipboard & Aircraft Platforms contract and options.

For the past 25 years, TCS has established a proven track record as a trusted provider of communication technology solutions to solve the government's toughest technical challenges, under conditions that demand the highest level of reliability, availability and security. To ensure mission continuity and to meet the need for more flexible, mobile wireless services, TCS TotalCom[®] offers deployable, highly secure communication solutions and complete end-to-end managed services for converged (IP-based) voice, video and data solutions to organizations requiring seamless and secure connectivity between fixed sites and remote operations around the world.

Supporting Quote:

TCS Government Solutions Group President Michael Bristol said: "TCS has enjoyed a good working relationship with the PEO EIS for several years, with exceptional past performance on previous task orders on similar IDIQs. This contract is further proof that our C4 support, which we provide at a competitive cost, is meeting the government's needs. TCS was an awardee under the previous contract, and we look forward to continuing our efforts for the next three years."
